NAMASTE

Welcome to the Bombay Brasserie. We trust that you will enjoy a truly unique and distinctive dining experience whilst indulging yourselves with the true taste of fine Indian cuisine.

THE FLAVOUR OF INDIA

From the seemingly infinite diversity of culinary creations existing throughout the Indian subcontinent - we have chosen to present some of the more characteristic, yet legendary dishes. The common term "curry" is an English adaptation of the Tamil word "kari" - meaning in effect - a "seasoned sauce" and traditionally never applied to identify Indian cuisine as a whole.

Incredibly varied, Indian cuisine is a combination of many nationalities and cultures. The most elaborate dishes come from the north and were inherited from the invading Persian Moguls. Pulaos and Biryanis are rich and lavish due to the ingredients used - an abundance of meat, ghee, nuts and saffron. The north Indian Kormas with their savoury sauces, kebabs and tandoori dishes, complemented by home made wheat breads such as Chappatis, Parathas and Naan, are world renowned. Hot, spiced tea is the favourite drink in the cold north Indian winter.

In southern India, where for the most part, people are vegetarians, rice is the staple food and is served throughout the meal. The dishes are also hotter than the northern dishes with chillies being a popular ingredient, as well as large amounts of coconut oil and coconut milk. Southern Indians prefer steamed food rather than the barbecued tandoori food so popular in the north and the favourite beverage is freshly roasted, ground coffee with sugar and milk. The Nilgiri Hills in the south are famous for producing some of the world's finest coffees.

SPICES OF LIFE

Around 5000 years ago, the Himalayan Sages conceived the use of spices and herbs as a natural means to balance the metabolism of the body. Some spices were "heat producing"; others were "cooling".

The knowledge became part of Ayurveda - the Hindu "Science of Medicine" - eventually surfacing as taste giving ingredients in Indian cooking and it is the variety, the combinations and the myriad uses of spices that distinguishes Indian cooking from any other cuisine in the world.

The origin of the popular aphorism "The Spice of Life" can perhaps be traced to those ancient times.

TANDOOR - A TIMELESS TRADITION

Indian villagers still use the traditional mud stoves and clay ovens, fed with coal or firewood, giving the food a special smoked flavour.

One such oven is the "Tandoor". Shaped like a barrel with live coals at the bottom, the cylinder becomes evenly heated.

The food, prepared first in a special marinade, is spiked on long metal rods and inserted into the oven for roasting.

The Tandoor was introduced into India from the Arab world prior to the 13th century.

ROTI

*The chorus of 1 billion Indians? Roti!
It is the most commonly spoken word. It means bread.*

ROTI: Originally, the name applied to ground whole wheat dough roasted over an open fire on a "Tava" or cast iron plate.

PURI: A Chapati, deep fried in ghee (clarified butter).

PARATHA: Roti, lightly fried on a "Tava" sprinkled with oil, rather than deep fried like the Puri. A thicker layered Roti of richer taste, which permits a number of stuffings to be used for further enhancing the taste and nutritional value.

NAAN: The Persian word for Roti, generally applied to refined, white bread made with flour (Maida).

TANDOORI and TANDOORI NAAN are those breads roasted in the Tandoor.

The variety of Indian breads is enormous and differs from region to region.
